Professor Arulogun emerges Senate Representative on UI Council

The Senate of the University of Ibadan has ratified the election of Professor Oyedunni S. Arulogun of the Department of Health Promotion and Education as its representative on the Governing Council of the University.

Her election was through E-Voting, and she recorded 233 votes against the 174 votes recorded by her co-contestant, Professor Olapeju O. Aiyelaagbe of the Department of Chemistry at a Bye-election held for that purpose.

The ratification of her election was made at a special meeting of the Senate held on Monday, 22 January, 2024.

Professor Arulogun was elected to complete the tenure of Professor Peter O. Olapegba, FNPA, who was appointed Deputy Vice-Chancellor Administration on November 08, 2023.

A tenure on Council spans 4 years, and Professor Olapegba was elected to the Council in July 2023.

Professor Arulogun would, therefore, serve on the Council until July 2027.

Thank you.
