ACADEMIC PLANNING UNIT

TETFUND ACADEMIC MANUSCRIPTS INTO BOOKS (AMB) INTERVENTION

This is to inform the University Community about the availability of funds from the Board of Tertiary Education Trust Fund (TETFund) under Academic Manuscripts into Books (AMB) Intervention. The main objective of this intervention is to support scholars in the University with grants to be used to convert Manuscripts into Books.

Eligibility

For any manuscript to be eligible for support under this intervention, it shall be:

- I. A tertiary level text from scholars of the University.
- II. Forwarded for funding by the Lead Author's institution where contributions are from different institutions.
- III. Submitted to, and accepted by a reputable Publishing House for the purpose of publishing.
- IV. Publishers Proforma Invoice should contain detailed cost breakdown strictly related to only the cost of publication of the books to be paid to the publisher.

Method of Application

Interested Scholars should write an application letter to the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic). The letter should be submitted on or before 30 August 2024. For more information, applicants can visit the Academic Planning Unit of the University.

Thank you.
