

4810

Special Release

13 September, 2024

EID-UL-MAULUD: FG DECLARES PUBLIC HOLIDAY

The Federal Government has declared Monday, 16 September 2024, as a public holiday to mark the Islamic festival of Eid-ul-Maulud, the birth of the Holy Prophet Muhammad.

The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Kayode O. Adebawale, mni, FAS, fspsp, congratulates Muslim Ummah within the University community on this occasion.

He urges the Muslim Ummah and all Nigerians to imbibe the spirit of patience, sacrifice, and resilience.

The Vice-Chancellor implores them to use the opportunity of the period to pray for enduring peace and a more prosperous egalitarian nation.

Work resumes on Tuesday, 17 September 2024.

However, officers on essential duties are expected to do the needful.

Thank you.

G. O. Saliu, fspsp, MANUPA, MNIM, MAUA
Registrar