THE GEOHACKATHON ONLINE COMPETITION

This is to inform the University community that the University of Ibadan in partnership with GIS Konsult Ltd and with the sponsorship of HITACHI announces another Geohackathon competition series tagged “Tell your story online competition: SDGs – A race we can win. A race we must win” from 14 January till March, 2019.

To participate, submit an interesting story about your work, interest or events guided by the Sustainable Development Goals.

There will be lots of winners and consolation prizes for every participant. First, second and third positions will be announced weekly throughout the period of the competition. The competition is open to both staff and students of the University of Ibadan.

The competition is another effort of Geohackathon at promoting innovation as the catalyst for sustainable development by encouraging the adoption of geospatial technology for research in order to develop innovative products and solutions for Nigeria’s developmental challenges.
