University of Ibadan Electronic Bulletin

This is to inform the University community and the general public that the University Bulletin will henceforth be produced in soft electronic copies. This becomes imperative owing to paucity of funds and in order to save cost.

Therefore, production of hard copies of the University Bulletin has been stopped since 01 May, 2016 and only electronic copies will be published henceforth.

Members of staff are hereby enjoined to visit the University website more often for timely information and to obtain their personal University e-mail addresses at the University of Ibadan, Information Technology and Media Service (ITeMS) and copy the Directorate of Public Communication.

Thank you.
