SECURITY ALERT

As the Christmas and New Year festivities are approaching, there is the need to remind all and sundry to adhere to minimum security measures which have been highlighted through this medium on many occasions. In the same vein, dry season is also approaching. Dry season could be hazardous, if not well managed.

In the light of the above and for the sake of emphasis, some security measures that could guide staff and students are hereby stated as follows:

- (a) Bush Burning: Bush burning should be avoided during the dry season as this could lead to unimaginable inferno and could be very destructive. Security office should be alerted immediately, in case of fire outbreak.
- (b) Fire Crackers/Bangers/Explosives: During the approaching festivities and dry season, fireworks, crackers and explosives should be avoided. In fact, these devices have long been banned by the Nigeria Police. Whoever indulges in the use of fireworks during these festivities would be arrested and prosecuted.
- (c) Campus residents: Campus residents are advised to ensure that their doors and windows are firmly locked before going to bed. The habit of opening doors and windows to take fresh air while sleeping should be avoided.
- (d) 31 December Cross Over Service: The period of 31 December cross over night service when residents would be at their various churches is characterized with burglaries and other social vices. In view of this, residents are advised to leave somebody behind at home when going for 31 December cross-over night service, please.
- (e) Electrical appliances: During the festivities and dry season periods, electrical appliances should be switched off when not in use.
- (f) Suspicious Movements: Residents on campus should alert Security Office in case of any suspicious movement in their areas.
- (g) Emergencies: In case of emergencies, please call Security Office immediately:
